

After-Reading notes for April 19, 2026 – Vedic Reading with Cyril Neicheril

Note: I'm expecting an analysis of the Vedic chart he has put together, not "life coaching". He seems to think I have some sort of "problem". I do not have any problems at the present time.

About 5 minutes into the reading, I mentioned to Mr. Cyril that he had misspelled my name on all the documents. He said, "Now you're picking on me." ... my spidey sense went, "Huh?" 🤔 It was after that that he said, "You're a difficult person"

He kept trying to make me think I needed some nebulous kind of fixing. Maybe because everyone who comes to him has a problem of some kind. But I wasn't buying into it.

Then he said, "You like to be in control of everything." I said, Yeah - I'll cop to that. When it comes to me, yeah, I do." Then he said you have to believe in yourself and do things for yourself. .. so which is it? Is he really saying, "You won't let ME be in control of everything" .. ???

Remember he wrote in his chart:
Jupiter retrograde indicates: Inner wisdom rather than external guidance. A karmic revisiting of relationship themes. In the 7th house: Tendency to attract partners that require fixing.

About writing my book, he said you can't look to others to help you, you have to do it for yourself. And if you don't do it by the end of this year, it's not going to get done. He could have said, "Your chart shows favorable movement around September for you to accomplish this." He got a little heavy handed on that point, methinks.

About relationships - I said I want the holy grail, true love. He said you can't have it. I said then I'll get as close to it as possible. He said then you'll fall into delusion. I said that's ok with me. He said no, it's not.

So I'm thinking to myself, "Well, this conversation is going well" ...

But I must say it was fascinating to listen to him recite the whole Indian lore about how the heavens & earth were created, then split, with different deities, where they ruled and what their function is, as related to astrology. I enjoyed learning about that ... like listening to Greek mythology.

Summary:

This was NOT a helpful reading. Mr. Neicheril is not good with details such as spelling the client's name right on sacred documents or composing a proper English sentence with proper punctuation and correct syntax. He got contentious when told he made a mistake then called me "difficult". He gave opinions rather than wisdom. He had no idea whatsoever of the person he was attempting to "coach". This was a FAIL.
